"Trust In Me"

I see you turnin' the world in your hands
Just let it go
I've loved you better, than ever you wanted
Doesn't it show

You've been standin' at the window, day and night
Lookin' at the rain, a simple conversation
A helpless situation please let me explain

Trust in me, when you're all alone
Trust in me, when you can't go on
If lovin' me is what you need
Trust in me

Don't make it easy, I don't mind
There's somethin' I can do
And just try to see what you see
And I'll be there for you

You've been standin' at the window, day and night
Tell me what you see
Sun in the daytime, moon at night
That's how easy it should be

Trust in me, when you're all alone
Trust in me, when you can't go on
If lovin' me is what you need
Trust in me

Trust in me, when you can't go on
Trust in me, when your strength is gone
If lovin' me is the power to heal
Trust in me

If you need someone to hold ya
Call me, I'll be there
And if ever you're in trouble
And you need someone darlin'
Call me, call me, call me, call me

Move a little closer
A little closer to the bone

Move on in
Oh darlin', move on in

Trust in me, when you're all alone
Trust in me, when you can't go on
If lovin' me is what you need
Trust in me

Trust in me, when you can't go on
Trust in me, when your strength is gone
If lovin' me is the power to heal
Trust in me
