"Down In Fire"

We're all victims of corporate robbery a capitalist conspiracy disguised as democracy we've got to stand up together, strike as one to steal back our dreams and our dignity

Our failure to agree only feeds the enemy weakened by the lack of confidence in each other competing not conversing, not advancing but reversing if we can't learn to get along this world is going down in fire

Trapped in a world of our own creation the one that we forged and built for ourselves we're encouraged to become our own jailers building up walls, our own prison cells

Our failure to agree only feeds the enemy
competing not conversing, not advancing but reversing
in fire

The future is ours, so why are we waiting?
Reach out with both hands, reach out and take it!
