Than she told me now, it's time to move on I can't sit around, watching you destroy yourself like that
Can't you see it's hurting me too,
I gave all I have
But I got nothing back
So now I pack my bags
Burnt the photographs
Memories will only hurt me
And I don't feel like crying anymore
So watch the shore
Your sinking ship
Get your shit together
Don't loose the grip
Maybe we can meet again
over a cup of coffee
But until then
I have to love myself again
Get back on my feet
Your love is killing me
Your love is killing me
Your love is killing me
And I don't feel like dying quite yet
