

Satanic Surfers "Submission"

We gather here to dance and play
Night until the dawn of a new day Sweating out our anger, singing to soothe our pain, drowning our sorrow, sea of joy and laughter, forgetting for an hour

But we both know that Real change comes from action and depends more on what we do when we wake up tomorrow Can't sit there with our asses glued
To a couch in front of our television Pacified in this position
Entertainment to hold us in submission, yeah
Entertainment to hold us in submission
