

Satanic Surfers

"Thoughts, Words, Action"

Visit "Thoughts, Words, Action" on MotoLyrics.com

Their lies have failed the world is rising against all forms of oppression i hear a message of defiance disobedience and solidaity people are getting off their knees speaking up for what they believe as individuals they join together to defend our humanity from thoughts to words from words to action spread the message inspire me in these times of despair rekindle my hope for the future of humanity the whole historyof progress of human liberty shows that all concessions made have been born of earnst struggle the conclusion: revolution for a new and better evolution spread the message strike the match light the flame in the hearths of the young.

Visit Satanic Surfers page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.