Sings us to sleep they've written a song for the masses to hum a rabble thought to dance to a mind numbing rhythm moving their feet to the beat of a drum sing us to sleep and fuck us over create a new market increase the demand for some useless product who no one really needs sell us a lifestyle a new personality for every occasion sell us a lifestyle punk rocks for sale at your nearest gas station all our ideals are up for sale to the highest bidder commercialized misused abused and thrown you with the rest of the litter sing us to sleep and fuck us over
