Turn off the key and shut me down
I'm the worst part of this town
Close your eyes for all to see
We will know you'll still see me

All I want you to do
Is find the things that I've lost in you
All I want you to say
Are the same lies you told yesterday, today

Close the door and step outside
I'm not ready for this ride
I hear the words you always say
They don't mean a thing today

All I want you to do
Is find the things that I've lost in you
All I want you to say
Are the same lies you told yesterday, today
