"I Am The Monster"

I went to a party, with all the famous monsters Frankenstein and Dracula everyone was there
The room started to spin cause we was drinkin gin and I tied and I tried but i could not get away

I took a trip to the other side it is the side where the spirits collide
Was a tall blond dragon who had her tale a waggin a real fire breather lit my cigarette I knew it was a sin but I just kept giving in though I tried and I tried but I could not get away and though a spirit lives a body dies there are some things that you can't survive

I have become one, a famous monster I've crossed into the other side and if you see one, a famous monster just don't look in her eyes
It started getting light, we all ran out of fright.
Godzilla on a pilla sleepy creatures of the night.
the room kept swayin cause the band kept playin and when I started leaving I knew something wasn't right
