You remember me
Through the memories in your mind
And ohh you're eyes will see
Ya, just what you, what you left behind
Now I've been tossing and turning

My heart is burning
The emotions into my bones
Could I try to make sense of
The way that it ends
When you tell me you're not coming home

'Cause baby, when two hearts beat
Followed by eyes that meet
And a soul is in a hurry
To get close to what they found

And ooh, this loneliness
More than my eyes, a mess
What is there left for me
Now there's nothing left to find

Ohh, but I know you'll find somewhere along the line
Love is easy, love is blind
Ohhh yeah

Now I turn my face away
'Cause then nothing, nothing's left to see
Ohh ohh
And I know that you
And I know that you never can anyway
For a love that's inside of me
No, you don't
For a love inside of me

But now the longer it takes, well
The harder it makes it for me
Stepping out on my own
And I'm trying to make sense of
The way that it ends
When you tell me you're not coming home

'Cause baby, when two hearts beat
Followed by eyes that meet
And a soul is in a hurry
To get close to what they found

And ohh this loneliness
More than my eyes, a mess
What is there left for me

Ohh but I know you'll find somewhere along the line
Love is easy, love is blind
Yeah
Love is easy, love is blind
Yeah, yeah
Love is easy, love is blind
Yeah yeah
Love is easy, love is blind
Love is easy, love is blind
