Ooo, what have you done?
Ooo, what are you running away from?
dangerous girl
heaven can change at the blink of an eye
dangerous girl
don't be afraid of the light under your skin is where it begins out of the night and into the light you're not afraid to be who you are dangerous girl you take it too far but i like it...like it

dangerous girl
what have you done?
dangerous girl
what are you running away from?
dangerous girl
heaven can change in the blink of an eye
dangerous girl
don't be afraid of the light right?

over the edge into my soul you go straight to my head so i got to be strong dangerous world but i'll never leave baby if i could lie then maybe you'd believe so i'm trying...trying

dangerous girl
what have you done?
dangerous girl
what are you running away from?
dangerous girl
dangerous girl
don't be afraid of the light
what have you done? Ooo you must have done, must have done something

Ooo

there's nothing to worry about, nothing to worry about just don't worry about it why do you say there is nothing to worry bout if there's nothing to worry about you say nothing at all it's late
