"Someday Soon"

It's under control but the sun and the moon
Have been after each other from night until noon
Chasin' around like a couple of fools
In a race of the clouds like a bloody cartoon
I hope I find my way home someday soon
Comfortable creatures and wonderless moves
Have been tirelessly learning their lines and their rules turnin around in their colorful shoes and surprising themselves with their wonderful moods
You know I would do anything for you
I hope I find my way home someday soon
So where are you going when you know where you belong?
What do you think you're going to find?
Follow the moon until the morning plays along
Same as it happens every time
Every time, every time
Forget to remember there's nothing to prove
And I get to the end and it must have been true
I mostly remember the way that you look
And the only thing left is i'm lonely for you

Everything reminds me of you

And I hope I find my way home someday soon

So where are you going when you know where you
belong?

What do you think you're going to prove?

Follow the moon until the morning plays along

Same as you always do

It's under control but the sun and the moon

Have been after each other from night until noon

Chasin' around like a couple of fools

In a race of the clouds like another cartoon

I know I'll find my way home someday soon
