Love surround me with all your reach
Now while we're here alone
Now our bodies are ocean and beach
Blessings of waves and stones

I float in a lonely sound
You found me
And now that the tide is finally down
Surround me
Surround me
Surround me

And love move for me
Though beneath the sky
Shadows and silver cross your face
Pools of moonlit night

Weak from standing on sandy ground, you found me
And now that I'm finally fallen down
Surround me
Surround me
Surround me

Love surround me while you can
Till these waves grow cold
Gone too deep, I cannot stand
I burn before I froze

Running to save my life
And leaving you
Now in the heat of this dreadful drought
I'm needing you
Surround me
Surround me

Mmmmâ€¦
Surround me
Surround me
Surround me
