

Benjamin Gate, The "Fall Away"

I'm faced with a day that's lost its meaning Everything's nothing, i feel like screaming
Louder, louder, scream again.

A heart full of hurt, a life needing healing
A mouth full of words with so little meaning
Closer, closer, you come to me

I fall away, away
I fall away, away
I fall away, away, away

I fall away, away
I fall away, away
I fall away, away, away

All of me falls away quickly what i need is not neccessity Stronger, stronger, i want to be

When i see you, my future becomes clear i know why im here, my life has a meaning.
Reason, reason you give to me

I fall away, away
I fall away, away
I fall away, away, away

I fall away, away
I fall away, away
I fall away, away, away(x5)
