

Benjamin Gate, The "Heaven"

I had all the words in the world
Now I've got nothing to say to you
Got to be a million people that
Have walked this road before

But why does it feel so tough
And I am letting go again
I think I understand
And I am letting go again

(Chorus:)
As heaven is open wide
I see these streets come alive
As heaven is open wide
I see these streets come alive
Like the sun coming up on a pitch cold night

As we face time on our own
And I am rediscovering
The life that's left to me
A sea of rediscovery
A sea of rediscovery

(Chorus)

As time goes by I don't see you smile for a while
As time goes by I don't see a smile for a while
Expose me God to your light
Touch my eyes
Free my soul
Expose my God to your light
Touch my eyes
Free my soul

(Chorus)
