

Benjamin Gate, The "Heaven Pan II"

Visit "Heaven Pan II" on MotoLyrics.com i had all the words in the world now i've got nothing to say to you got to be a million people that have walked this road before but why does it feel so tough and i am letting go again i think i understand

as heaven is open wide i see these streets come alive like the sun coming up on a pitch cold night

as we face time on our own and i am rediscovering the life that's left to me a sea of rediscovery

as time goes by i don't see you smile for awhile as time goes by i don't a smile for awhile expose me God to your light touch my eyes free my soul
