The fear I carry in my heart
The things that change and turn around me
What is it that I become?
When is it that it's all undone?
I long to be close to you
So close I disappear into you
Doesn't matter what I try and do
You show me what is real and true
The person that I hope to be
Not bound by anyone's opinion
A person with history
Moving to my destiny

Whatever I'm needing,
Whatever I'm feeling
I give up to you
I give up to you

You hold me tight in your hand
That's when I feel the peace that I crave
You make me brave to withstand
You take me thru this barren land
God I hear you speak so clear
Your words melt away my fear
Even when I'm far, you're near
Your love will never disappear

Whatever I'm needing,
Whatever I'm feeling
I give up to you
I give up to you

That's when I lose myself in you
