so sorry to disturb you my circus thumping friends you never ever listened now we're falling in the air ooh and the love falls down like rain

oh but you never listen
spend your life trying to buck God's system springs back over your head like a mouse trap so sorry to disturb you my blind fold running friends I see you trip and fall throw your hands up in the air ooh and the sin cuts in like pain

springs back over your head like a mouse trap

13, 14, 15, 16, and the ages rise stand close stand apart don't you put your hands up in my eyes
