According to evolutionary theories an ape stood up Increasing his eyesight and point of view
Evolving to bipedalism, to fend and organize attacks It's only theories but sure we are not different from animals

Fireballs fell from the sky
Clever beings drove us
To exploit our gray matter
And prove we are not alone

CHORUS

Organizing themselves to hunt Taking care of their loved ones
Establishing ruling powers
Joining in groups
That we will prevail and change the world

Carving stones, creating spears Carving wood,
creating weapons

Fireballs fell from the sky
Clever beings drove us
To exploit our gray matter
And prove we are not alone

CHORUS

Organizing themselves to hunt Taking care of their
loved ones
Establishing ruling powers
Thinking in groups
So we will prevail and change the world

Carving stones, creating spears Carving wood,
creating weapons

Confronting races, erasing races, Evolving to a more rational being,
Cunning, aggressive, organized, murderous
