My fate growing up
Was with the family blood
One night my father left
I asked him if I could go where he went

I don't understand why's that gun in your hand

Daddy why's he on his knees
Please don't make him bleed
Why he's breathing so hard
I remember what he said with that look in his eyes

Fall on your knees and plead my name
Beg me, scream and take the pain
Your words don't mean a damn thing
I break your face on my knees
Your cries don't even phase me
Enjoy the dive to your grave

What should I think
All the shock that I had made me sick
And disgusted inside
That night he asked me to be part of the family
His words resonate this is your destiny

Daddy why did you choose me
No, I can't make him bleed
Don't make me do that

Do it like I showed you boy
Seal your fate

On your knees and plead my name
Beg me, scream, and take the pain
Your words don't mean a damn thing
I break your face on my knee
Your cries don't even phase me
Enjoy the dive to your grave

This rush that I had
From killing a man

All this blood on my hands
Now I do it again

Fall on your knees and plead my name
Beg me, scream and take the pain
Your words don't mean a damn thing
I break your face on my knee
Your cries don't even phase me
Enjoy the dive to your grave
To your grave
