So far away
How did I lose my way
Even though we're worlds apart, you were always in my heart everyday.

Travel far and wide
Fly across the blue moon in the sky
Sail through the clouds to places you have never been
You could wish a thousand times
Find the gold that pirates left behind
But you'll never find a greater treasure than a friend

Let's not pretend
That pixie dust could end
Every single tear that falls
Any problem big or small
You can mend

You can soar to Neverland
Fly right through the water fall and dance
See the colors change before your eyes
And let them believe

Float above the mountain top
Watch the fireflies light up the night
There is one everywhere you turn so please believe

Cause I believe in you
You're the magic in my life
That has stones that sparkles bright through and through

Travel far and wide
Fly across the blue moon in the sky
Sail through the clouds to places you have never been
You could wish a thousand times
Find the gold that pirates left behind
But you'll never find a greater treasure than a friend

Don't want the pain of losing you, again
I can tell you in the end

You won't find
A Greater Treasure Than A Friend....
