I die just a little
Each day I see the pain that they must live
I cry just a little
And I wonder if there's more that I can give

I give my love
(my love)
I give all the hope I can
They know they're not alone
Together we'll make a final stand

This is their hope
This is their prayer
That there are people who still care
Who will not forget
They are innocent
Innocent one and all

This is their hope
This is their prayer
That someone always will be there
To stand by there side
To protect them
Help them to stand tall
This is their prayer

BRIDGE
They need to know their not alone
We need to make the fight our own

'Cause the road long and windy
Need to help them find the way
Help them wipe away the sorrow
And find a brand new day

This is their hope
This is their prayer
That there are people who still care
Who will not forget
They are innocent
Innocent one and all

This is their hope
This is their prayer
That someone always will be there
To stand by there side
To protect them
Help them to stand tall
This is their prayer

This is their prayer
