How many times I know that you all need to run?
How many times that you just ill for fog?
Cause I got things to do, renouncing all, announcing
I'm alive
So how many times do I need to take control,
Take control, take control, lose control!

So many lies your told yourself to hide the truth!
Locked in my base, I share this... skin
I have no need to prove, renouncing all, announcing
I'm alive
So many lies, do you need to tell them all?

Chorus:
I see you, you don't say
I hear you, just walk away
I see you, it's OK
I don't care, just gone away
Hey, hey, hey!

How many times I know that you all need to run?
Cause I got things to do, cause I got things to do
And how many times do I need to scratch your back
..no fun to see!
Oh, no love again!

And how many times
And how many times
And how many times
Just go away!
