Work nine to five, get home surprised.
Another bil, another day, just another strife.
They just won't stop talking all you got,
Til there's nothing left and nothing left in the pot.
Sometimes I don't feel like I wanna,
To make it through the night or through the day,
But one thing I know,
That I won't let it go
I can see through the smoke
I hold my breath and grab the rope.

If you're tired of life, if you're tired of pain
And you hit rock bottom and nothing will change
You gotta believe that, you gotta believe that,
It's gonna get better, it's gonna get better
And you hit rock bottom, you can't take no more
You gotta believe that, you gotta believed that
It's gonna get better, it's gonna get better.

I wake up at night stil trying to fight
The negative mentality that rules my life
Have some regrets just can't forget
Mistakes and bad relations wait a minute not finish yet.
There's one thing to note, just can't let it go
You may not always win but in the end the fight made you grow.
Gotta grab the rope gotta bump trough the smoke,
If you don't try you'll never know.
