Imagine how this world could be
Whitout anger and pain.
Imagine how we could be
Whitout heavy rain.
Searching fort he finer things in life
We forgot our dreams.
Shooting arrows of hate
And were about to go insane.

We must start to treat each other better
Cause we can!
You must hear the voice inside your soul.
Must try to give the best you can.
Walking hand in hand with my sister and brothers
And with the mamas and papas.
Finaly you will see,
That everyone's agree.

We have the gift to shout it out loud.
If you want to say something
Stand up don't be shy and speak.
To those who listen,
To those who believe in,
To those who's praying every night and day,
From this day on,
I promise dear God I'm living for you.

We must start to threat other better
Cause we can!
You must hear the voice inside your soul.
Must try to give the best you can.
Walking hand in hand with my sister and brothers
And with the mamas and papas
Finaly you will see,
That everyone's agree.
