Ever think we should try to re-establish
That connection that we made
During the summer's days?

Maybe I should be subtle or maybe
I should be pure, I think we should talk
About what we were going through

Wonder what it would be like if we had kept
Up that aversion, maybe kept listing
All those people that we hated

Isn't it ironic, you still have ideals
And I still have nothing
Isn't it ironic, you still have ideals
And I still have nothing

Hoping that you'll change
So we can sit straight some day
Hoping that you'll change
So we can sit straight some day

Hoping that you'll change
So we can sit straight
Hoping that you'll change

Hoping that you'll change
So we can sit straight
Hoping that you'll change
