Tonight I'll stay awake long enough
To stop breathing
And I wonder how long it will take
Before I pass out, drunk off night skies

Lying on hills
Wet grass below
Blue black above
I will carry all the weights tonight

'Cause I keep remembering the day
That you said you might go crazy
If you have one more minute with me
What do you think about those days? And I don't know
Is one more minute going to kill you now?

Stop me before I say too much
So now I've been alone and it's been going
But tomorrow might not come
If I don't let it

So don't forget the mornings
That we spent deep inside out heads
Staring at blank walls
'Cause that's what counts

And I don't know
But I am trying to let you go
But I can't cut too well
These strings I have around my neck

I'm trying to let you go
Trying to let you know
I'm doing this by myself

Now I've been alone and it's been going
But tomorrow might not come
If I don't let it

So don't forget the mornings
That we spent deep inside out heads
Staring at blank walls

That's what counts

And I don't know
But I am trying to let you go
But I can't cut too well
These strings I have around my neck

I'm trying to let you go
I'm trying to let you know
I'm doing this by myself

Don't forget we sent
Letters to ourselves
Without words
And it was just to remember

Just to remember
Just to remember
Just to remember those days
That we spent in our heads
