

Saves The Day "She"

Visit "She" on MotoLyrics.com

She is a dying dandelion Floating on the breeze twirling sweetly in the evening

She is the stars glowing gorgeously
She is the sloping clouds forever scrolling
unfolding

She is the sun burned blue Shadows on the moon
She is the morning dew dangling on leaves leaking into streams Forever flowing unfolding

No one can say her name now she sits and sings Something about her dreams hours go by before she looks at me She brings my heart as I open my eyes to drink melon sky
