the enemy has come for you hear the pounding thunder hooves there's no time to run or hide draw the weapon from your side when they ride out from morning mist with sharp blades in mighty fists one hundred warriors on horse an awesome brutal force you feel weak and scared fear has gripped your heart you will soon be over run you will soon be torn apart

now where is your god
does he hear your prayers
does he even care for you his silence speaks loud and clear

raid is done
see the country burn
all are gone
only misery remains
the warriors return
all that's left is pain

the vikings strike so fast and hard those who run won't make it far and those who chose to stand and fight they have made the choice to die the weapons tear through flesh and bone dying men that scream and moan with severed limbs to the hall of death the battlefield is full of death feel the stench of rotting flesh when the entire country burns as the warriors return and they came out from morning mist

they leave this land all burned and scorn those alive will mourn

warriors return
does he even care
a silence loud and clear
