I'm a free fall
Straight up out of control
Full of words of wisdom
I'm seeing double vision

From a dead on head on crash course in collision
A sucker for a kind word
Every voice I've heard

This is my answer for you

There you go again being beautiful you
Setting fire to all you hold on to
There's a blaze in my hand portraying one-sided views
I'm letting go again, won't be another friend to a
Beautiful, a beautiful you

I'm a concept
In the human race
A mirrored image another shade of grace
I'm molded by pride
Barely holdin' on for life
A prejudice lover always and forever

This is my answer for you

There you go again being beautiful you
Setting fire to all you hold on to
There's a blaze in my hand portraying one-sided views
I'm letting go again, won't be another friend to a
Beautiful, a beautiful you

I keep hearing what you said
It keeps playing over and over again

There you go again being beautiful you
Setting fire to all you hold on to
There's a blaze in my hand portraying one-sided views
I'm letting go again, won't be another friend to a
Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful you
