Bringing down the giant. Oh.
I hit the wall I got back up and dusted off.
I'm past the pain and I'm taking back all that I lost,
I'm going to kick you off the throne hang your crown
Up on the wall, yeah your glory days are gone gone
Gone. Yeah I'm bringing down the giant I won't sit Here undecided. When your world comes crashing down
I'll remind you I'm the one who's laughing loud in You face yeah yeah your karma's coming back here to Find you this is going to get a little violent yeah
I'm bringing down bringing down the giant.
Too many lies bound up inside your bound to fall,
Standing face to face your not so big after all take Your bow you had your shot looking down while your
On top now your glory days are gone gone gone yeah
I'm bringing down the giant I won't sit here undecided (Chorus). (Chorus repeat).
I'm the one who's laughing loud in your face,
Yeah your karma's coming back here to find you things
Are going to get a little violent yeah I'm bringing Down bringing down the giant.
