My body is about to burst i held back all that i can hold i hurt for the taste of your sweet release we only had a minute
our emotions anticipated the love that loves to hate and out from the blue

like a villain in the night that's when you pulled
your knife

and the true you
came shining through

you cut me right
you cut me from the inside
and i won't ever let you live this down as long as i'm around to jog your selective memory

the moment of truth arose went to her (strike as one)?
for all that we'd known ooh
it slowly melts us inconsumable flame

how perfect i dreamed if it were only you and me in this love affair why can't you let him know he sets out to confuse you know just what to do

cut him right

yeah oh

no i won't ever let you live this down

yeah
