

Saving Abel

"Goodbye"

There's no need to worry all day long
'Cause worry don't help a thing
We've burned our bridges at both ends
So if I never see you again

Goodbye so long
Hope you enjoy it while it last
'Cause soon this world of ours is gone
Farwell to you all
'Cause heaven knows that we don't have all that far to fall

It feels like we're in over our heads
That we've wasted our days
Running through life with reckless disregard
Now there's nothing to save
Sooner than later I'll be high
Maybe I'll gain my peace of mind
So here's to the world passing us by
Goodbye

Goodbye so long
Hope you enjoy it while it last
'Cause soon this world of ours is gone
Farwell to you all
'Cause heaven knows that we don't have all that far to

So wave goodbye
As we count down to the end
One more trip of all the sun
If I never see you again
Sooner than later I'll be high
So here's to the world passing us by
Goodbye

Goodbye so long
Hope you enjoy it while it last
'Cause soon this world of ours is gone.
Farwell to you all
'Cause heaven knows that we don't have all that far to

Goodbye so long
Hope you enjoy it while it last
'Cause soon this world of ours is gone
Farwell to you all
'Cause heaven knows that we don't have all that far to
