"I Say"

Out where the sweat did flow
From broken stone a wall did grow
Sometimes doubt the word, in sunlight
Sometimes, in the melting sand

Who says what's
Right or wrong
I say I say I say he said
Who says and who rules strong
I say I say I say he said

The walls come down and questions rise
The scents of doubt collateralized
The broken wall, the broken faith
All shout in the melting sand

Who says what's
Right or wrong
I say I say I say he said
Who says and who rules strong

I say I say I say he said

It's very hard for you, I know
But there's no other way to go
You do not know what I intend
But you should trust the dusty hand
Sometimes I'd like to be like you
This feeling's often coming through
So, you should trust the words I say
So, you should trust the words I say
The words I say

Who says what's
Right or wrong
I say I say I say he said
Who says and who rules strong
I say I say I say he said
