A single flower from beauty's bower
Is all I wish to find
A cold tender kiss would bring the slenderest
Sense of divine

Love
Can't be found
Love
It's got heart
Loveheart

Like a freeze on a film
I'm alone, all life ceased
And this love arrives so gently
Like leaves falling from trees

Love
It's all around
Love
It's got heart

And then one winter's morning
Out in the wild woods
Alone in concentration
There she stood

Love
By grace is mine
Love
She's got heart
Loveheart
