lovely, lovely, lovely daughter this is the fate that you're being offered release your will and give in to me i've got my eye upon your culture this is the life that you're being offered won't be long before you give in to me

'cause this is the fate that you're being offered i believe it's fate that you're being offered your father loves me your mother loves me you're very prestigious i've studied your family tree lovely, lovely daughter my guardian angel whispers he whispers: "she'll give in you'll see"

i believe it's fate that you're being offered
