You never really needed me
The way you need your nicotine
I watch you when you take a drag
Yeah, like a lover in your hands

Maybe I was just a sugared buzz
A little high but not enough
You felt me for a little while
But those highs, they never last

But I don't wanna be
Just another bad habit to you

When you're down to your last cigarette
And you think about what you regret
Oh, when your hands start to shake
And you're down on your knees
Do you want me like nicotine, like nicotine?

Am I right in through your blood?
Am I everything you crave?
Do you miss the way I smell?
Yeah, do you miss the way I taste?

Do you reach for me at night?
Do I linger on your skin?
Am I ever on your mind?
Do you wonder where I've been?

You say that's what you need
Oh, but I don't wanna be
Just another bad habit to you

When you're down to your last cigarette
And you think about what you regret
Do you miss me at all?
When your hands start to shake
And you're down on your knees
Do you want me like nicotine?

Go on, go on, go on, try to give me up
But you know you can't quit

I'm the fire burning your mouth
You can't spit me out
You can try but you can't forget

When you're down to your last cigarette
And you think about what you regret
Do you miss me at all?
And your hands start to shake
And you're down on your knees

When you're down to your last cigarette
And you think about what you regret
Do you miss me at all?
And your hands start to shake
And you're down on your knees
Do you want me, do you want me
Do you want me like nicotine, nicotine?
