If your voice breaks and starts to quiver
Weve been through this before-ore, remember
If we cross paths again, before we forget
The shivers and the thrills we felt on the night we met
Ive no resistance to long di-istance
Makin' love on the telepho-one
Ive no resistance to long distance
Makin' love on the telepho-o-o-one
We used to have the innocence of the love of your pretences
Somethin' we just gave away and looked for ever since Youre gazin' at the wide winter blanket on New York
Im sittin in the subway-ay, tryin' to ta-a-a-alk
Ive no resistance to long di-istance
Makin' love on the telepho-one
Ive no resistance to long distance
Makin' love on the telepho-o-o-one
If I hear a sniffle down the line I know it's reminiscin' time
And each of you ever knew your - baby
Well stand together on a foreign street
Laugh at strangers walk that beat

Watch them vanish without a trace
Familiar smiles in the city of faces
Makin' love on the telepho-one
Ive no resistance to long distance
Makin' love on the telepho-o-o-o-one
Im makin' love on the telepho-o-one
Yeah baby, Ive no resistance to long distance
Im makin' love on the telepho-o-o-o-one
I've no resistance to long distance
Im makin' love on the telephone, baby
Ive no resistance to long distance (fade)
