Look at all the people in the doorways, people on the street

People in the hallways, people love to meet

People in their feelings are locked in paradise

Look at all the people in the houses, people on the stairs

People and their visions, you'll see them everywhere

Atomic people, they'll all move away

It's mass exodus day today

People walk, people fly, people sing, people sigh

People lose, people try, hurt people cry, people live,

people die

People laugh ha-ha-ha, yes they laugh ha-ha-ha

We're all laughin'

Look at all the people lose their meaning while others stand and stare

They don't move like clockwork, you'll see them in the air

The flying people, they'll express a way

It's mass exodus day today

People walk, people fly, people sing, people sigh

People lose, people try, hurt people cry, people live,

people die

People laugh ha-ha-ha, yes they laugh ha-ha-ha

We're all laughin'

And what will happen to the family when the day comes When the child no longer owes his existence to two biological parents

Genetic engineering, life can now begin in a test tube

And the idea both fascinates and appeals to me

Carbon copy people, are you a clone? - NO!!

People walk, people fly, people sing, people sigh

People lose, people try, hurt people cry, people live,

people die

People laugh ha-ha-ha, yes they laugh ha-ha-ha

Oh they laugh ha-ha-ha

People, oh yes they're laughing at me now-ow

People walk, people fly, people sing, people sigh
People lose, people try, hurt people cry, people live,
people die

People laugh ha-ha-ha, yes they laugh ha-ha-ha

Oh they laugh ha-ha-ha

People walk, people fly, people sing, people sigh

People lose, people try, hurt p
