Is this the legend of a liquid brain
That crossed the funky musclemen(?) and died in the rain?

He never guessed that the world would end
Crawling off the beach from the sea to the land

??? mark(?) and a man in blue
Crawling on his supper(?)
Falling through his window
??? mark(?) and a man in blue
Crawling on his supper(?)
Falling through his window

Is this the legend of a liquid brain?
You're just a tunnel/eternal spinning in space
You're just a tunnel/eternal spinning in space
You're just a tunnel/eternal spinning in space
(And when you return)
With flat packages of stolen goods
If you don't give them weapons how you gonna get your food
We never guessed that the world would end
Drinking on the beach and we're driving on the land...

??? mark(?) and a man in blue
Crawling on his suburbs(?)
Falling through his windows(?)
??? mark(?) and a man in blue
Crawling on his suburbs(?)
Falling through his window

Is it true what they say
About life and decay?
(Cause I'm going away)
Is it true what they say
About the colours that close when you're going away?

Is it true what they say
About life and decay?
(Cause I'm going away)
Is it true what they say

About the colours that close when you're going away?
