See that cloud up in the sky
He'll try to fool you every time he has a sun
Don't let that tear there in your eye ever rule you
When your smiles are down to none

Keep an open mind a swinin' door
A happy walk and a humble heart
I got so much I could teach you baby
I'm just not quite sure I should start

Look for lessons in mistakes
Forgiveness in the breaks
Let goodbyes just be a simple thing
Look for golden on the dust
For Wisdom in the rust
And Always look for angles when you sing
Love in Everything
Love in Everything

Life is full of good and bad
It's never gonna turn out like you thought
Don't hold on to what you could of had Just take care of all the things you got

Be grateful for the broken dreams
That sometime lead you down a better road
Take a good look in the mirror
Baby aces are a hand you will never fold

Look for lessons in mistakes
Forgiveness in the breaks
Let goodbyes just be a simple thing
Look for golden on the dust
For Wisdom in the rust
And Always look for angles when you sing

Love in Everything
Love in Everything

Look for lessons in mistakes
Forgiveness in the breaks

Let goodbyes just be a simple thing
Look for golden on the dust
For Wisdom in the rust
And Always look for angles when you sing

Love
Love In Everything
Love In Everything
Look For Love In Everything
Love In Everything
