Well, you've got a new man
And that's good for you
And you've got a lot of money
But what good will that do

When he leaves you on the side
And the money falls away
You'll come running back, baby
Believe what I say

Money can't save your soul
You better leave now while it's still ain't old
Money can't ease your mind
Come back and leave it all behind

You're in his house
And it sure looks fine
With three other girls
But you're the first in line

And what would happen
When your time comes 'round?
The money will go
And you'll be homeward bound

Money can't save your soul
You better leave now while it's still ain't old
Money can't ease your mind
Come back and leave it all behind

Well, you've got a new man
And that's good for you
And you've got a lot of money
But what good will that do

When he leaves you on the side
And the money falls away
You'll come running back, baby
Believe what I say

Money can't save your soul
You better leave now while it's still ain't old

Money can't ease your mind
Come back and leave it all behind, oh yeah
