It's been a long time coming
And although I always knew it would come
I don't believe that now it's here
And it's been so long prolonged
That now it echoes through my soul
A broken promise as you slowly disappear

Oh I hope I don't forget to remember you

How do we say Goodbye
How do we say Goodbye
When I'm holding onto the memory
How do we say Goodbye?

You know the secrets that we hide
And though we put up quite the fight
We don't remember, what was it all for?
And now you're found walking away
You leave the questions unexplained
With all the answers left in pieces on the floor

Oh I hope you don't forget to remember me

How do we say Goodbye
How do we say Goodbye
When you're holding onto the memory
How do we say Goodbye?

It seems we spent our time together
Trying to say one word
I hope it's not forever

How do we say Goodbye
How do we say Goodbye
When we're holding onto the memory
How do we say Goodbye?
