So are you gonna break my heart?
Are you gonna rip my world apart?
Are we gonna do this now? I don't have all day.

Come on and get the scissors out
Show me what love is all about
Do it fast and painful, just like always.

Come on I've gotta rock and roll
We don't need to list the things you stole
Use your fingernails or use a tool
You're a beautiful woman with a job to do

So go, just go ahead and say the words
I can't tell you how many times I've heard
Those same words repeated to me anyway

There's a boat on the open sea
It's just perfect for someone like me
Who doesn't care where he's going, as long as it's far away

If you ever got to use your heart
You wouldn't even know where to start
So let me put your mind to rest
It's a useless antique tucked away in the chest

So are you gonna break mine in half?
Are you gonna walked away and laugh?
I'm a very busy man, and money is time

So I'm thinking that your time is up
I'm at the bottom of this coffee cup
I'll just break it myself and that should be fine
