"To Say Goodbye"

Of all the pictures and memories
Going by in my head
I'll always remember
The one thing you said
You told me love everybody
The best that you can
Your time on Earth is going by
Don't let it slip through your hands

Chorus
Cause everybody's gonna have to find a way
To say goodbye
To say goodbye
To somebody they love

Everybody's gonna have to face the day
They say goodbye
When they say goodbye
To somebody they love
To someone they love

Without hesitation, you savored your life
And you just closed your eyes
And went to sleep one winter's night
And all the angel's in heaven
And this fool down below
Couldn't stop the clock from clicking
And it hurts when you're letting go

Chorus x2
