The world is turning slowly
People spinning around
I'm sitting under a table
Watching you in the dancing crowd

Ohhh dancer, dancer dance for me a while

Sliding from me to you
You cover the air with your scent
Your skin inhales the fire of life

Ohhh dancer, dancer dance for me a while

Abiding in a haze
Your body extends and reunites
You take away my despair and turn it into grace
At the moment when you fall

Ohhh dancer, dancer dance for me a while

Oh you've touched me deeply
You're dancing my dance of life

Oh isn't it beauty isn't bliss
Now I have arrived.
