I'll have my last cup of tea
Then I'll go to bed
I'll have my last cup of tea
Tonight I'll close my eyes and I'll tell my wish
If something happens I'll be rich
Or I'll find a boy to love
Or a boy who loves me too

I'll set my table so nicely
Full with flowers for you
Take a seat you're invited
To share this cake with me
I'll close my eyes and say a prayer
I'll bless this day I bet you'll come
And take your seat
Cause I have set table all so nicely for you

Come with me boy I'll take care of you
Don't you leave me you won't find me again

I'll have my last cup of tea
Then I'll go to bed
Tonight I'll close my eyes
I've been waiting all those years
That you'll turn out the light
When we fall asleep
Together, together my sweet boy

Take a bit of that cake...
Take a bit of that love...
Love me...
