I love where angels are comin' from
I love where angels are comin' from

I believe this world we live in
Is like a big blue door
That we come in to and then we pass through
Like so many have done before

And I believe, a baby is a miracle
So is the love that life becomes
So begins this beautiful journey
With our Father and with His son

Leading and guiding
And giving us strength in our faith
And I know it's through grace

I got a plan to be with angels
I got the sweetest promise there has ever been
And I got a hand full of people I love
And I want to be there with them

A seven day saint or a seven day sinner
It seems my soul is always on the run
But I got a plan to be with angels
I love where angels are comin' from

I love where angels are comin' from

Sometimes, I have this vision
I see that river and I see the shore
And I walk down into the water
And till I don't want, till I don't want no more

And I wake up with this peaceful feeling
In my heart, in my soul and my mind
What was once a weight on my shoulders
Is now the hand of something divine

Leading and guiding
And giving me strength in my faith
And I know, it's through grace

I got a plan to be with angels
I got the sweetest promise there has ever been
And I got a hand full of people I love
And I want to be there with them

A seven day saint or a seven day sinner
It seems my soul is always on the run
But I got a plan to be with angels
I love where angels are comin' from

I love where angels are comin' from

I got a plan to be with angels
And I love where angels are comin' from

I love where angels are comin' from
I love where angels are comin' from
I love where angels are comin' from
I love where angels are comin' from
I love where angels are comin' from
