Your name - a night without end
I pray the Lord is keeping
Two doors - you stand or you sleep
I'm still waiting for you to come in
I can remember your eyes shining
I hold a handful of your ashes

How can you leave me here
to dig your grave and bury my fear
Your voice keeps calling to me
Dig your grave but don't disappear

Goodbye - a sword double-edged
Swallow and I'll stop beating
Two doors - you stand or you sleep
I'm still waiting for you to walk in
I can remember your eyes shining
I hold a handful of your ashes

How can you leave me here
to dig your grave and bury my fear
Your voice keeps calling me
Dig your grave, don't disappear Shine on
Shine on
Shine on
