the mind is hollow and mentally I'm cranked can my brothers be the judges of a different end o.k. it's in a frenzy way, livin' from day to day it's payback

boom, splatter
your checking all my licks will the weather ever change will the judge even grow better earth's being attacked and nobody knows how their roll goes

still I'm feeling the course has just changed inside why not feel, it appaers that we're turning softer and blind now I'm feeling closer what's the opposite of sad nothing that I'll ever have to change for a fact my knuckles are baptised in cold and molded steel bam, blast tthe fuck off this shit is the real deal

how their roll goes

why not feel this appeal coming towards me
