VERSE:1

It was exactly early seven in the morning
I felt my phone vibrating and I received a message From my boo saying that baby we can never work it out
We can never work things out
And she said she needs to say goodbye
And I can't believe that this tears it suddenly starts To immerse from my eyes and every night
Even if I tried to close my eyes
I couldn't even sleep, coz the pain Inside in me really penetrated Like I've been shot by a glock
My heart is dying, and I couldn't even stop it From bleeding, please come back to me girl Coz you are the only reason why I'm living Baby your my life your my everything
And for you I'll do and give you everything Anything, even if I'll give you this expensive Golden ring while I'm kneeling Just for you to take me back again Coz baby in your loving arms I'm so truly Badly craving craving...

CHORUS:

Now that you are gone... how can I go on now?... you left me on my own now I am all alone... I'm holding up this tears not to fall into the ground... I'm forcing up myself to cry without making any sound... Now that you are gone how can I move on now?... can't even sleep at dawn now coz you are not around, can't wipe away this tears when I turn into this sound, I'm losing up my strenght when I sing this song into the crowd

VERSE:2

God look at me now I'm really out of focus I feel like I'm in hell and I feel like my heart is burned Into ashes, more like my life is like a paper
That is torn into pieces coz since she was gone I can no longer see what grace is

I'm always full of misery in silence Oh! please?why can't I be happy without her?
Is this a curse?now I'm dying in pain While I'm spitting up this verse
This tears are gonna burst it's getting worst Than ever coz I thought her love would be forever
But why it changed into game over?
I know I'm a sinner but why in this kinda situation I must suffer?is this the price for all the things that I've done
When I was still a crazy gangster?give me an answer?
Coz I don't really wanna lose her I'd rather lose this diamonds and silver Than to lose the only person
That I truly purely treasure treasure

CHORUS:

Now that you are gone... how can I go on now?... you left me on my own now I am all alone... I'm holding up this tears not to fall into the ground... I'm forcing up myself to cry without making any sound... Now that you are gone how can I move on now?... can't even sleep at dawn now coz you are not around, can't wipe away this tears when I turn into this sound, I'm losing up my
strenght when I sing this song into the crowd

Baby since the day you left me, my life and soul
Had been miserably unworthy...
Ohhh.wowowo OoHHh... Ohhh.wowowo OoHHh
